

Progress Report #3 March 22, 2007

Brunini, Grantham, Grower & Hewes, PLLC became the first customer to sign a lease for office space in The Pinnacle at Jackson Place. The firm will relocate its 150 employees into approximately 50,000 square feet in The Pinnacle in late fall 2008. Signing a 15-year lease, Brunini demonstrated a commitment to downtown Jackson and to participating in the renaissance that is taking place there.

Founded by John B. Brunini more than a century ago, Brunini, Grantham, Grower & Hewes, PLLC has grown into one of Mississippi's largest and most respected law firms. The firm's clientele consists primarily of business corporations and includes a number of Fortune 500 companies and other significant Mississippi companies, including the nation's largest privately held wireless company, Mississippi's largest health insurer, and one of the State's largest banks and largest health care systems. Lawyers throughout the firm have been recognized by their peers for inclusion in the Best Lawyers in America. This recognition is a tribute to the outstanding legal services the firm provides.

Shown signing the new lease for The Pinnacle at Jackson Place are Walter Weems, Chairman of Brunini and Lee Nations of Parkway.

For more information about Jackson Place, contact Lee Nations at lnations@pky.com or 601-948-4091 or visit our web site at www.jacksonplace.com.

