

*Progress Report #4
April 19, 2007*

Watkins Ludlam Winter & Stennis, P.A. (WLWS) became the second firm to sign a lease for office space in The Pinnacle at Jackson Place. The firm will relocate its 150 employees into approximately 55,000 square feet in The Pinnacle in late fall 2008. Signing a 15-year lease, WLWS joined a growing list of firms demonstrating a commitment to downtown Jackson and to participating in the renaissance that is taking place there.

Founded in 1905, and having more than seventy attorneys, WLWS is one of the largest and most well-established firms in the State of Mississippi. Their lawyers - licensed in ten states and the District of Columbia, and graduates of forty-eight different law schools, colleges and universities - bring a diversity of talents and backgrounds to serve their client's needs. WLWS is a full-service firm with offices in Jackson, the Mississippi Gulf Coast, and the Memphis Metropolitan area.

For more information about Jackson Place, contact Lee Nations at lnations@pky.com or 601-948-4091 or visit our web site at www.jacksonplace.com.

Watkins Ludlam
Winter & Stennis, P.A.